VACATION SCHOOL GUIDE

INTRODUCTORY

What Is a Daily Vacation Church School? It is a church gathering of girls and boys from four to fourteen years of age, under the direction of Christian teachers, sessions lasting two or more hours, five mornings a week for three to six weeks in the summer vacation period.

How to Organize a School?[1] A Daily Vacation Church School is built around Christian personalities. The aim is to lead the children into the Christian way of life. The higher the type of Christian teachers the better the school.

At a Sunday meeting or some other church gathering, a well-informed speaker who believes in the project with all his heart, gives the idea to the entire church, with or without illustrative slides. Then and there, or soon after, a strong committee is appointed with power to act.

The Committee having been appointed, a principal is found. He or she may be a pastor, a good teacher, a student in training or some experienced Christian leader who knows and loves children. The teacher-principal ought to possess executive and teaching ability, to be enthusiastic and not afraid of the hardest kind of work.

[1] Problems of organization and administration are more fully covered in a free leaflet entitled "How to Conduct a Daily Vacation School of Religion," issued by the Congregational Education Society, Room 807, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Instruction Courses are selected with the objective of Christian living in mind. The teachers use these merely as guides, and are urged to let the pupils' problems modify the instruction even to the point of entire departure from any prescribed course.

PRIMARY GROUP

(Children approximately six, seven and eight years old)

Three plans and an alternate plan are outlined in this Guide.

Plans One, Two and Three form a Primary cycle, for the three successive summer sessions of a child at six, seven and eight years of age. Plan Three may precede Plans One and Two, if desirable.

Children grouped by grades may use Plans One, Two and Three simultaneously in the three groups, and progress from plan to plan each year.

Beginners and Primary children who are in two groups, (1) children five and six, (2) children seven and eight, can use for group 1, Plans One and Two in rotation; for group 2, Plan Three and Alternate Plan in rotation.

PLAN ONE

Selected Programs from The Mayflower Program Book with correlated Bible Stories and Worship Material

For a School of Thirty Sessions: Use Programs 1–26, with four additional sessions for hikes, expeditions, parties or picnics. These informal occasions offer valuable opportunities for a teacher to help her children meet various problems of living together in a Christian spirit, as, for instance, settling a quarrel, showing consideration, demonstrating cooperation in play and self-control.

For a School of Twenty Sessions: Programs 1, 3, 4, 6, 8, 9 or 10 (choice), 11, 12, 13, 14 or 15 (choice), 16, 17, 18 or 19 (choice), 20, 21 or 22 (choice), 23, 24, 25, 26, one hike, expedition or party.

For a School of Fifteen Sessions: Programs 1, 3, 4, 6, 9 or 10 (choice), 11, 12, 14 or 15 (choice), 16 or 17 (choice), 18, 21, 22, 25, 26, one hike, expedition or party.

The Mayflower Program Book provides detailed plans for two hours of (a) directed play, (b) instruction (including worshipful candle-lighting services alternate weeks) and (c) a work period in which gifts are made for those in whom the stories have aroused interest.

Program Twenty-Six: Exhibit and Playlet

"The Fairies' Model Kingdom"

PLAN THREE

The Knights of Anytown and The Rest of the Family with correlated Bible Stories and Worship Material

The Knights of Anytown is a series of twelve stories about children who try to make Good Neighborhood Street of Anytown worthy of its name. The Selfish Giants, the Disobedient Giants, the Truth-Haters, the Stealers and many others attempt to get into Anytown and take Heart o' the Town, but the children are helped to overcome them by the Neighborhood Angel.

The fascinating occupation which accompanies the stories is the building of a toy town, locating the houses by a map. There is a final exhibit, and then the model and the book of stories is given to a hospital or Children's Home.

The Leader's Manual gives full information for making the model, and furnishes the map and patterns for other gifts.

These stories can be combined with a Bible Story and Worship Period. (See pages 45–47.)

The Rest of the Family is a series of twelve stories about the White family which found it had brothers and sisters in all parts of the world, who had a right to the House on the Hill. Following The Knights of Anytown, it helps to broaden the children's horizons.

The Leader's Manual provides detailed suggestions for songs, prayers and work to deepen the impression of these stories, and for the final entertainment a "movie." These stories can be combined with a Bible Story and Worship Period. (See pages 47–50.)

For a School of Thirty Sessions: Use The Knights of Anytown, twelve programs, The Rest of the Family, thirteen programs. Once each week, probably Friday, for five weeks, have a hike, party or expedition. These informal occasions will furnish opportunities for the teacher to help the children meet various problems of living together in a Christian spirit,— for instance, settling a quarrel, consideration for others, cooperation in play and self-control.

For a School of Twenty Sessions: Use The Knights of Anytown, Programs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 (combined), 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 (combined), 12; The Rest of the Family, Programs 1, 2, 3 and 4 (combined), 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 (combined) and three hikes, parties or expeditions.

For a School of Fifteen Sessions: Use The Knights of Anytown, adding three sessions for hikes, parties or excursions; or The Rest of the Family, with two sessions for hikes, parties or expeditions.

A Brand New Book of Bible Stories

By FRANCES WELD DANIELSON

THE BIBLE STORY BOOK

Prepared especially for Primary Children

Beautifully Illustrated

Miss Danielson is famous for her fascinating ethical and Bible stories for children. This new volume contains

Fifty Adaptations of Stories from the OLD and NEW TESTAMENTS

Written in the simplest language and presented in Miss Danielson's delightfully refreshing style. All selected for their religious educational value.

Some of the Stories

Unexpected Company, A Shepherd Boy and a Giant, Travelers of Long Ago, A Hunt for a Man, A Boy's Journey, Children Who Knew Jesus, A Little Man Who Climbed a Tree, A Runaway Slave.

Two Distinctive Features

Although the stories are arranged chronologically, each one can be told or read by itself, independently.
All the stories are tellable without adaptations, and written from the standpoint of a story-teller.

A Source Book of Bible Stories for the Story-teller

This book will be eagerly welcomed by the story-teller,—in the Sunday School, at Home, in the Weekday School of Religion, and in the Daily Vacation Church School.

A Book of Bible Stories for the Primary Child to Read

The large square type and beautiful illustrations add very materially to the enjoyment of the stories.

Contains a Host of Correlated Bible Stories to accompany The Mayflower Program Books, The Knights of Anytown, The Rest of the Family, and The Junior Citizen when used in Daily Vacation Church Schools. This is the Bible Story Book referred to so many times in our Vacation School Guides, Primary and Junior.
